

Site Visit

Japanese Art Festival

Friday 30 March - Sunday 1 April, 10.30am - 5.00pm

The Japanese Art Festival was held at Aotea Center.

More than 240 Japanese modern art works including Animation, Illustration, Origami, Oil painting, Paper cutting and stuffed toys have come from Japan for the 2012 Japanese Art Festival.

This year's exhibition also included a section of art works (including photography) created to raise awareness of last year's tragic Japanese earthquake, tsunami and subsequent nuclear disaster.

Looking into Audience & Spaces

